ELOPERS AT CLAYTON. Make a Busy Day for Marriage License Clerk.

Cense Clerk.

Yesterday was a busy day at the marriage license office in Clayton. Three couples took out licenses and were married by Justice J. B. Greensfelder, while another was scared away by the fact that there were newspaper men about.

Bridges Sexton, who gave his address as Detroit, Mich., and Lillian Simon of Washington, Mo., were one of the couples, and they admitted that they were elopers. Accompanying the two was C. L. Huenker, Jr., who said his address was No. 327 Lindell boulevard. St. Louis, but there is no C. L. Huenker at this address. Sexton said he traveled for a seed company, and that he was in St. Louis, but there is no C. L. Huenker at this address. Sexton said he traveled for a seed company, and that he was in St. Louis, but there is no C. L. Groves, of No. 374 Cleveland avenue, and that her parents were abroad and ignorant that she was getting married.

Edward H. Peters of Venice, Ill., and Mary L. Newmann of St. Louis were the second pafr. They refused is say anything of themselves. The third were Henry Woerther of Hallwin and Isabelia W. Hay of St. Louis. Weerther is a merchant.

Another more mysterious couple than any went to Clayton about 4 o'clock, For a long time they walked around and around the Courthouse. Then they signaled the janitor and asked him whether there were any reporters around. On hearing that there were the would-be bridgeroom sought out and asked him whether there were any re-porters around. On hearing that there were the would-be bridegroom sought out Clerk Wolff of the Probate Court and asked him if they could get a license outside in some secret spot. Hearing to the contrary they departed. The girl appeared not more than I7 years old, and her companion did not seem more than 29.

KILLED BY ELECTRIC SHOCK.

Accident to City Marshal of Galena.

Galena, Kas., June 20.-City Marshal Milford Parker was instantly killed late last night. A telephone wire had fallen across the sidewalk and he picked it up to wrapit around a post. He walked a distance of about thirty feet with it in his hands, when he suddenly pitched forward, dead.
In pulling the wire to tie it up, it touched a live wire. Within thirty seconds prior to this he had hold of his little 3-year-old daughter's hand, who stood almost against him when he received the shock?
